

GIS Analyst

Classified Ad

Baker County Board of Commissioners is seeking qualified applicants for the position of GIS Analyst. This position demands high attention to detail. Skills in digital cartography, Microsoft Office, and spatial databases. Research and understanding of zoning, land use, and other property histories. Map creation and maintenance from various data sources. Involvement in special projects to assist the various departments of Baker County. Complete job description is located on the County website.

Salary is $40,000 - $50,000 DOQ. This is a full-time position with full benefits, including Florida Retirement, health, life, vacation/sick leave, holidays.

Job description and application is located at www.bakercountyfl.org/jobs , it is also available at the Human Resources Office located at 55 N Third Street Macclenny, FL 32063. This position will remain posted until filled.

Baker County is a drug free workplace and an equal opportunity employer. All applicants are considered for all positions without regard to age, race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital or Veteran status, medical condition or disability, or any other legally protected reason.

Dates of Publication:

10/07/2021

10/14/2021