JOB REQUIREMENTS

- Custodian is required to clean, sanitize, and re-stock supplies in the auditorium when there are scheduled back-to-back rentals (i.e., rentals on Friday/Saturday or Saturday/Sunday). This includes: sweeping and mopping all floors including kitchen, auditorium, bathrooms, and hallway; vacuuming stage and rugs; cleaning glass doors; re-stocking supply room and bathrooms with trash bags, soap, paper towels; cleaning/sanitizing bathrooms and kitchen (floors, countertops, toilets, refrigerator, etc.); sweeping sidewalks; replacing lightbulbs as needed.
- Custodian will be required to check-in renters as scheduled. When "Checking-In": Custodian meets renter at appointed time; reviews rules, cleaning procedures, check-out procedures and contact phone numbers; completes a walk-through of the building showing renter how to use key on glass doors, where supplies are located, where tables/chairs are located, how to set thermostats for air conditioning, etc.; asks renter to sign "check-in" form.
- Custodian will be required to check-out renters as scheduled. When "Checking-Out": Renter will call when they have completed their required cleaning and are ready to check out. Custodian checks auditorium thoroughly by using post-inspection list. This includes checking: tables, chairs, auditorium (floors, walls, ceilings), bathrooms (floors, toilets, trash), kitchen (floors, counters, appliances), trash taken out, renters belongings out of auditorium, outside around building. Review Post-Use Inspection List with renter. Be sure you both agree that Renter has completed all required cleaning. Renter signs "Auditorium Inspection List" form and Custodian collects key from them. Custodian then checks and locks all doors, turns off all air conditioners, turns out lights.
